TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Anyone who eats this bread will live forever

Jesus said to the crowd: 'Anyone who eats this bread will live forever'. To live forever is one of the longings in every human heart. And yet death is part of every human life. Jesus reveals though that death is not the end but only the beginning of new life and he has led the way for us through his resurrection. And he gives us his own body and blood to lead us into eternal life. Through the Eucharist we are already united with life that will last forever, a life that we are called on to live now through our love for God and for one another. Eucharistic people are meant to be people who live life to the full, people who radiate hope, people who are known for their joy and gladness in being alive, people who forgive easily and often, people who bring peace and happiness into the lives of all whom they meet.

Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS - That those called to serve the diocese of Derry as priests in the 21st century will find the strength and encouragement they need in Jesus, the Bread of Life, who gives Himself to us in the Eucharist, and that they will be filled with wisdom, joy, and faith.

Vocations Day for those interested in the diocesan priesthood, Sunday 8 September, beginning with Mass in St Mary's Oratory, Buncrana, at 12:30pm, ending with a Holy Hour for Vocations, from 5-6pm. Anyone hoping to attend should contact the diocesan Vocations Director, Fr Pat O'Hagan, at pgoh2111@gmail.com or tel: 028 7938 6259.
