SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT
SUNDAY 16 MARCH 2025

Pilgrims of Hope - Holy Year 2025

When spending time in the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, during times of Adoration or at other times, it's good to pray in silence - there may also be occasions when the Rosary is recited in public - ready to listen in prayer to what the Lord wants to say to us, and to bring our requests into His loving presence. We might ask for forgiveness of our sins, and call on the Holy Spirit to help us to understand what God has given to us in the person of Jesus. It can be an opportunity to bring our own particular intentions to the Father, as we pray for our families and friends, our neighbours or colleagues; for the sick, the poor and needy of our world; for peace; for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. We could choose to bring a Bible or a book of Psalms to help us to meditate on God's word. Praying the Rosary unites us with Mary, the Mother of God, who accepted God's will for her and, through that acceptance, brought Jesus into the world. As we finish our time of Adoration we might pray for the grace to bring Jesus into our world - our homes, our workplaces, the places where we meet and socialise with one another.

SSPX Resistance Ireland
Note from Bishop McKeown

SSPX Resistance is a group holding Masses within the territory of the Diocese of Derry. Given their presence here in the Diocese of Derry, I find it necessary to stress the following:

- * The priests associated with SSPX Resistance Ireland are not in full communion with the Catholic Church and they do not accept the full teaching authority of the Church.
- * The priests of SSPX Resistance Ireland administer sacraments, but do so illicitly - that is, without the necessary faculties and approval of the Church.
- * The Catholic Church has no supervision whatsoever of the priests or ministers of SSPX Resistance Ireland, who have no connection with the Diocese of Derry in terms of Safeguarding practices and policies and are not overseen by the Bishop of Derry.

Considering this information, I urge all the faithful to remain steadfast in communion with the Church, united with the Holy Father and the bishops who share in full communion with him. Let us continue to pray for the unity of the Church and for those who have distanced themselves from full communion, that they may one day be reconciled.

Bishop Donal McKeown

VOCATIONS: We ask God's blessing on those being called to serve as priests of the diocese of Derry, that they will have the faith and trust of Abraham and St Patrick, and that they will listen to Jesus, the Son of God, the Chosen One.

We welcome into God's family
Sadie Marie Henry-Magee,
Portglenone, who was baptised recently.
