Message from Fr. Pat

My dear parishioners, by the time you read this it will be three weeks since the surgery on my knee. Thank God, everything seems to have gone according to plan, apart from the fact that the surgeon decided to go for a total knee replacement rather than a partial one. Recuperation is slow. The exercises are hard and exhausting but, please God, they'll get me to full recovery. That could take at least three months which would mean I'll be absent from the parish longer than I had anticipated. I had hoped to be back by St Patrick's Day but it could now be just after Easter.

Whilst Masses, baptisms, and funerals are all being covered - and I'm very grateful to Fr Peter O'Kane, Fr Kieran O'Doherty, and others for their help - I'm very conscious that the sick and housebound, whom I attend every six weeks, are being somewhat neglected at this time. I know some are blessed to receive Holy Communion regularly at weekends. If you're on my "list" and unable to attend Mass, you might approach a Minister of the Eucharist to arrange to receive Holy Communion occasionally.

I appreciate your messages, good wishes, and assurance of prayers. Please keep me in your prayers. You are all in my prayers every day, as I look forward to seeing you again and resuming my ministry among you. God bless you.

Fr Pat
